

SPEECH ON CHILDREN'S DAY IN ENGLISH

Good Morning, respected teachers, parents, and my dear friends.

Today, we are here to celebrate one of the most joyful occasions – Children's Day! A very happy Children's Day to all my dear friends! Today is a special day just for us. As Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam once said, "The future of the nation lies in the hands of children." This day reminds us that we, as children, hold the power to shape the future.

Today, we are gathered to celebrate Children's Day, a special day dedicated to children. Every year, on November 14th, we honor the birthday of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first Prime Minister, who was fondly known as "Chacha Nehru." He loved children and believed that they are the true future of the nation. He called children "the flowers of the garden" because they bring beauty, joy, and hope to the world.

Children's Day is important because it reminds everyone of how special children are. On this day, we enjoy games, fun activities, and spending time with friends and teachers. It's a day to celebrate the joy, innocence, and brightness that children bring into our lives.

As Chacha Nehru said, "Children do not see differences among themselves." Let's stay united as friends and make the world a better place for everyone.

Enjoy this day to the fullest, keep smiling, and remember—you are the stars of tomorrow! Thank you!

Thank you, and Happy Children's Day to all!...
