Sample Conversation 1 – Conversation between Teacher and Student about Future Plans

Teacher – Good morning, Nancy. How are you?

Nancy – Good morning, Ma'am. I am fine. How are you?

Teacher – I am doing fine. What are your plans after the Class 12 Boards examination?

Nancy – Well, Ma'am, I am planning to pursue English Literature.

Teacher – I thought so! I know how much you love English. So, did you decide from which college you want to pursue English Honours?

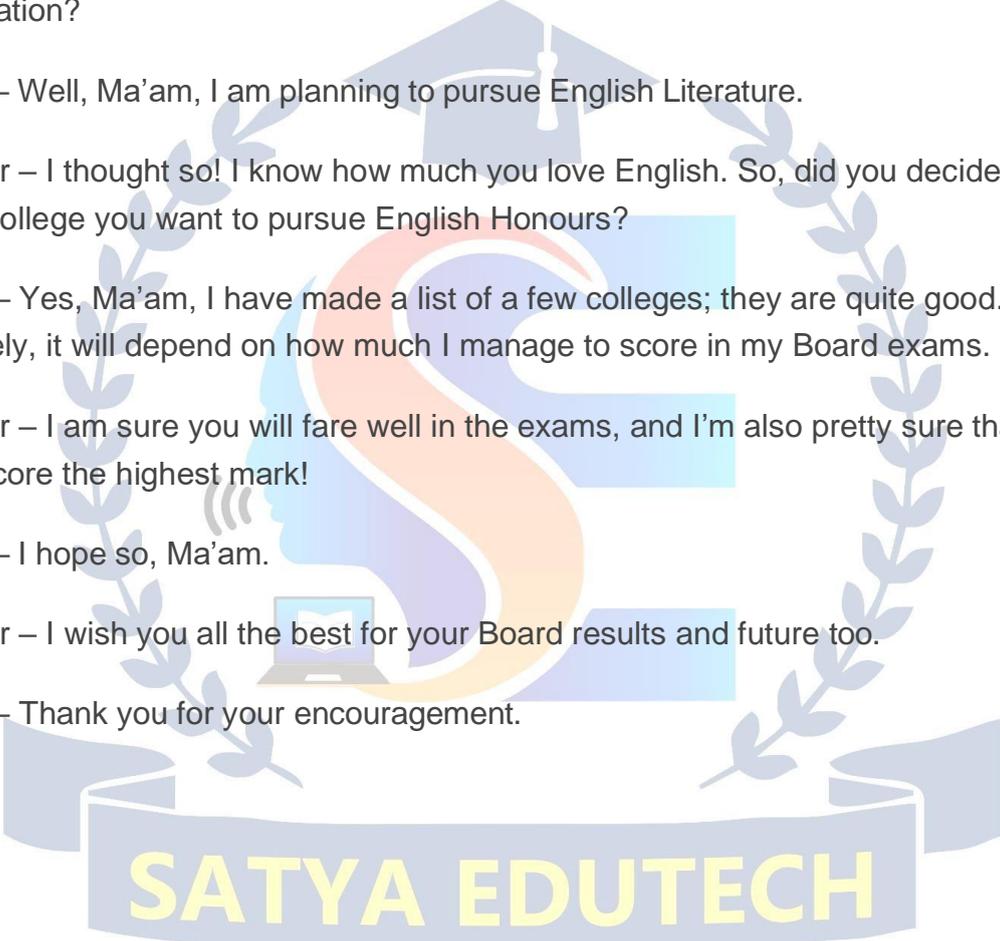

Nancy – Yes, Ma'am, I have made a list of a few colleges; they are quite good. But ultimately, it will depend on how much I manage to score in my Board exams.

Teacher – I am sure you will fare well in the exams, and I'm also pretty sure that you'll score the highest mark!

Nancy – I hope so, Ma'am.

Teacher – I wish you all the best for your Board results and future too.

Nancy – Thank you for your encouragement.

Sample Conversation 2 – Conversation between Teacher and Student about Homework

Teacher – Good Morning, students. I hope everyone has completed the History homework I had given yesterday?

Raj – Good Morning, Ma'am. I could not complete my homework.

Teacher – Raj, what happened? Why haven't you completed your homework?

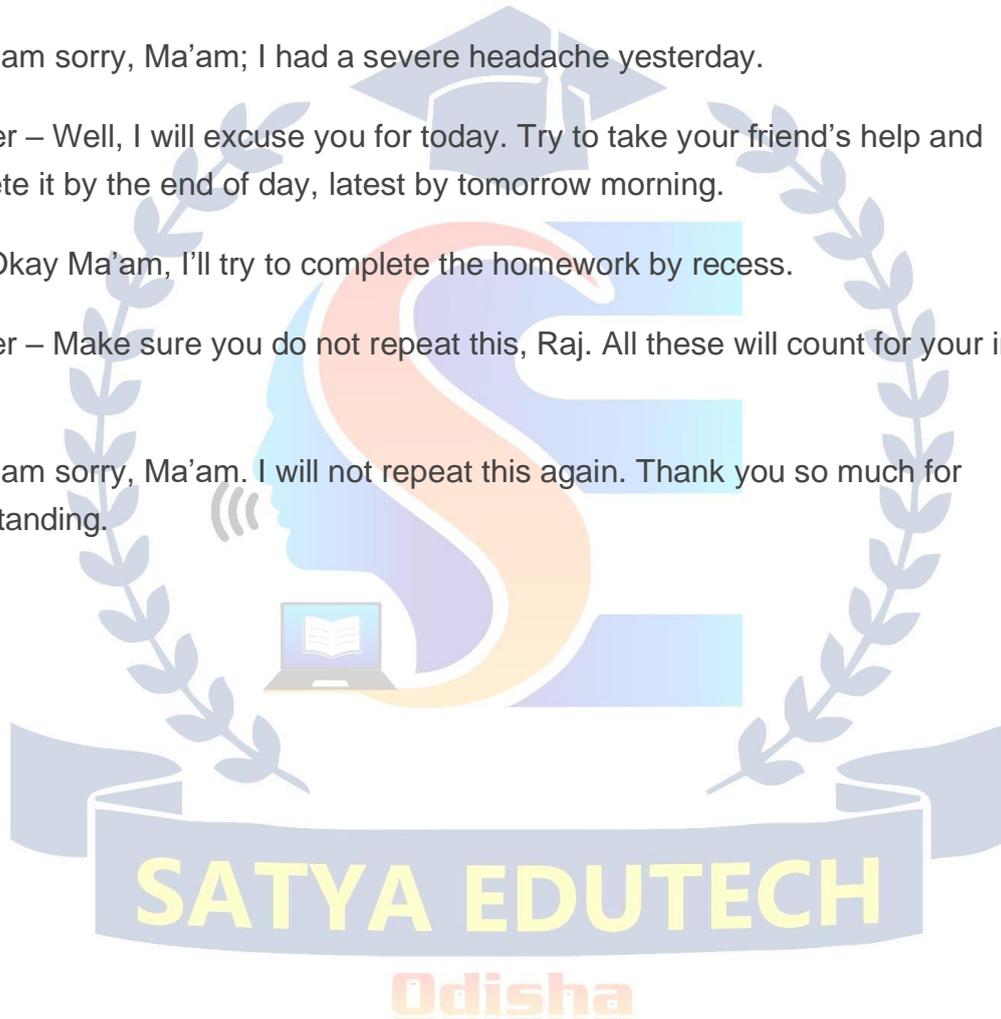

Raj – I am sorry, Ma'am; I had a severe headache yesterday.

Teacher – Well, I will excuse you for today. Try to take your friend's help and complete it by the end of day, latest by tomorrow morning.

Raj – Okay Ma'am, I'll try to complete the homework by recess.

Teacher – Make sure you do not repeat this, Raj. All these will count for your internal marks.

Raj – I am sorry, Ma'am. I will not repeat this again. Thank you so much for understanding.

Sample Conversation 3 – Conversation between Teacher and Student about Taking Leave

Anjali – Good Afternoon, Sir. May I come in?

Teacher – Good Afternoon, Anjali. What brings you here at this time?

Anjali – Sir, I wanted to find out if I could take leave for a few days in the next week.

Teacher – How many days of leave do you want and why?

Anjali – I need leave from Wednesday to Friday as my elder sister is getting married.

Teacher – Oh, is it? I wish her all the best on her new journey, but don't you have your half-yearly examination starting next week?

Anjali – Yes, Sir, but we don't have exams on the days I need leave.

Teacher – Okay. Do you think you will get enough time to study amidst the wedding?

Anjali – I have completed all my revisions beforehand so that I won't have to miss my sister's wedding functions, and I'm fully prepared for the remaining exams.

Teacher – Good, that is impressive. Please write a letter mentioning the reason and the dates on which you require leave. I'll forward it to the Principal. Once she signs it, you can go ahead and take leave.

Anjali – Okay Sir. I will write the letter and bring it to you tomorrow. Thank you for your time.

Teacher – You are welcome.

Sample Conversation 4 – Conversation between a Teacher and a Student Meeting after a Long Time

Dhruv – Good evening, Ma'am.

Teacher – Good evening. I know you. Aren't you Dhruv Sehgal of batch 2012?

Dhruv – Yes! Ma'am, I am so happy that you recognise me! How are you?

Teacher – I am good. What about you? Where are you these days? What are you doing?

Dhruv – I am doing good, Ma'am. Just came home a few days back for a family function. I'm working in Canada for a foreign bank.

Teacher – Oh, wow! That's so good to hear. I knew you would land up in some banking jobs as you were so good with numbers.

Dhruv – It is all your constant guidance back in school that motivated me to take up the job. Thank you for all your love and support.

Teacher – Isn't that what a teacher does? If you are staying for this weekend, you can come and join us for the Annual Function of our school.

Dhruv – Sure, Ma'am, I would love to attend. I will surely try to make time to come.

Teacher – Great talking to you. See you.

Dhruv – See you soon, Ma'am.
